What's Hops in the Park?

Hops in the Park is a national award-winning hops and harvest festival celebrating agriculture and the long, rich history of brewing in Virginia.

Approximately 3,000 people attend each year.

Features: 35+ Virginia craft beers, local ciders and wines, brewing demonstrations, crafts market, live music, food trucks, and of course – Virginia history.

What's Henricus Historical Park?

Henricus Historical Park, a living history museum, recreates the second successful English settlement in North America and the Powhatan Indian village of Arrohatock. Henricus offers exceptional educational programming and special events for adults, children, and schools. Henricus Foundation is a nonprofit 501(c) (3) organization that operates in partnership with Chesterfield County.

Who benefits from the proceeds of Hops in the Park?

Proceeds from Hops in the Park benefit children's education programs at the Park, which have supported up to 10,000 area school children each academic year.
